ARTICLE V

501(c)(3) NON-PROFIT STATUS

The Corporation is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Corporation will have all the powers granted a Corporation by AS 10.20.005.725. The provisions set forth in AS 10.20.153 (applicable to private foundations) will not apply to this Corporation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Corporation will exercise only such powers are in furtherance of the exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Subsection 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code under which the Corporation chooses to qualify for exemption, as the same now exists, or as it may be amended from time to time.

In the event of dissolution of the Corporation, no member will be entitled to any distribution or division of its remaining property or proceeds, and the balance of all money or property received by the Corporation from any source, after the payment of all debts and obligations, will be used and distributed exclusively within the intention of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as now exists, or as it may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VI

MEMBERSHIP IN THE CORPORATION

The Corporation will have members. The conditions of membership will be defined in the bylaws.

ARTICLE VII

LIABILITY

The private and personal liability of the Board of Directors and members will be exempt and free from corporate liability, except and to the extent provided by law.

ARTICLE VII

AMENDMENT

These Articles may be amended at a regular or special meeting of the members of the Corporation called for that purpose. No amendment of the Articles shall be made unless:

- 1) At least 30 days before the meeting, all members eligible to vote are provided a copy of the notice of the proposed amendment.
- 2) The amendment is voted for by 2/3 of the members who are eligible to vote and who are participating at the meeting.

These restated articles correctly set out the provisions of the articles of incorporation as amended on May 15, 2025; they have been adopted as required by law; and they supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments.
